The Halal Science Center Chulalongkorn University is hosting the 1st Thailand Halal Assembly, December 28-30, 2014, and would be held under the kind Patronage of H.E. Gen. Prayuth Chanocha, the Prime Minister of Thailand.

Central Islamic Council of Thailand (CICOT) is the official body mandated by the Royal Thai government to issue Halal Certification in Thailand. CICOT is established under a Royal Act of Islamic Organization Administration 1997. CICOT is in Thailand chaired by the Thailand's Sheikhu'l Islam and has the authority to administer all Islamic affairs and provide advice on Islamic affairs to Thai government.

Thailand has a Muslim population of over six million people and offers more than 120,000 Halal certified products that are all Halal Certified by CICOT. The objective of the Thailand Halal Assembly is to launch the "Thailand Diamond Halal", the Halal Mark of Thailand which is synonymous for High Quality, Health and Halal. The Halal Assembly would be attended by VIPs, experts, buyers and trade visitors for more than 50 countries and aims to promote Halal Certified products trade between Thailand and the OIC countries.
